BOOKING FORMALITIES

We can provisionally hold a date for your wedding for a maximum of 7 days. Should a signed wedding contract and the payment of the booking fee not be received during this time, the Hotel may release the provisional event date without notice. To confirm your booking, you must sign the contract and return it to us with a minimum booking fee of £500.00 (booking fee can be greater, this will be explained when quoting). The booking fee is Non-Refundable and Non-Transferable and will be deducted from the final balance payment. We recommend you consider taking out wedding insurance to safe-guard against any unforeseen circumstances.

PAYMENT

Payment Terms are based on the contracted wedding quote and will be amended based on the final numbers (subject to meeting minimum numbers). The payment schedule is detailed below, and the final payment must be made not later than one month before the Wedding date when 100% of the wedding booking balance must be paid (less booking fee).

1 Year - £1,000
6 Months – 40%
3 Months – 75%
1 Month – 100%

Persons other than those named on the contract (i.e., father of the bride) will be deemed as part of this contract if a payment is made by them in relation to this agreement.

A payment plan can be arranged, please ask for details.

CANCELLATION BY YOU

If a situation occurs and you must cancel your wedding, you must inform us by telephone and confirm in writing as soon as possible. If you do cancel, the following charges will apply and will be based on the booking details and full amount due on the front of this contract:

6 months and over - Booking fee agreed

Between 4-6 months - 40%

Between 2-3 months - 75%

Under 2 months - 100%

The hotel strongly suggests that Wedding Insurance is taken out.

CANCELLATION BY THE HOTEL

We will be entitled to cancel your booking without liability at any time if: -

The booking might in our reasonable opinion damage our reputation or become untenable.

You are more than 14 days late in making any of the required payments as detailed above.

The venue cannot deliver its full services due to a third-party failure.

The structure of the building becomes un-usable

You significantly alter the requirements of your booking, so that it would no longer be viable to us to accept it. Should this occur we would endeavour to offer you a reasonable alternative choice of facilities, however, depending on the timescale involved, cancellation charges for the difference in the booking value may be charged.

FINAL NUMBERS

The approximate numbers of guests must be given when confirming your booking and you should inform us of any significant changes as they happen. We must be advised of the exact number of guests 1 month before the event. If more people are catered for on your wedding day, we will charge for this number, or the minimum number agreed, whichever is the greater.

CHILDREN

Whilst we welcome children to the hotel, may we advise you that parents are responsible for their own children and their behaviour. We do not permit children in corridors or public areas without a parent being present to avoid disturbing other hotel guests. Supervision by parents must be given at all times especially in outdoor areas.

PERSONAL BELONGINGS

The hotel accepts no liability for the safe keeping of cards or presents and we strongly suggest that arrangements are made for a family member to look after your items. The hotel accepts no liability for any personal belongings and suggests that all items are removed from the hotel at the end of the event. By accepting to store items does not mean that the hotel accepts liability should the items be misplaced or damaged.

ACCOMMODATION

All bedroom bookings require a credit card guarantee and any rooms booked by the Bride and Groom become their responsibility should their guests depart without settling their final account. If required, the hotel will hold a maximum of ten rooms on allocation and if these are not confirmed 8 weeks before the event, the hotel will release them without notification.
